Foundation activities

The Latah County Library District Foundation is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation. Your gift of any size, type or value is tax-deductible.

The purpose of the Latah County Library District Foundation is to enhance the quality of county-wide library services by raising community awareness and funds for library programs and projects. Currently the Foundation is building its initial endowment and welcomes donations of cash, bonds, stocks, mutual funds, and real estate.

The Foundation Board of Directors consists of citizens representing all of the Latah County library communities. The Foundation works in cooperation with the Latah County Library District to fulfill its mission.

Visit the Foundation web pages and blog at www.latahlibrary.org.

Help the Foundation reach its starting goal of $300,000.

Why give to the Library Foundation?

The Foundation encourages donations that will strengthen the future of the Latah County Library District.

The Foundation manages its reserve through prudent and conservative investments with a focus on long-term development for the Latah County Library District.

The Foundation offers donors the opportunity to direct their resources for the benefit of a specific library or program if they so desire.

There is something for everyone@your library!

Finally, the Foundation assists all district libraries in their efforts to seek grant funding on a local, regional, or national level. These grants may focus on enhancements to technology, program enrichment, or building improvements.

The Latah County Library District has a proud history of library service. The Foundation seeks to ensure that library service to county patrons remains vital and relevant into the future.

The Foundation welcomes gifts of all types

How can I help?

There are many ways to donate:

Immediate gift—Donate cash, bonds, stocks, mutual funds, or real estate. Donate online through the Paypal link at www.latahlibrary.org.

Deferred gift—Name the Foundation as a beneficiary of life insurance, IRAs, annuities, & other retirement accounts.

Bequest—Name the Latah County Library Foundation as a beneficiary of your will or trust account.

Charitable trust—Transfer assets into a trust that can pay you or your heirs income for life. Upon death the asset is transferred to the Foundation.
